Information on the Investments of the Funds

General Principles Applicable to the Investments of the Funds

As a general principle, in respect of each of the funds, we comply with the Canadian Life and Health Insurance Association Guideline on Individual Variable Insurance Contracts Relating to Segregated Funds, the Autorité des marchés financiers Guideline on Individual Variable Insurance Contracts Relating to Segregated Funds (in Quebec), applicable laws and regulations and such investment and lending policies, standards and procedures that a reasonable and prudent person would adopt in respect of a portfolio of investments and loans to avoid undue risk of loss and to obtain a reasonable return. As part of this framework, the Company has the authority to invest the assets of each fund in any way it judges to be most effective for the attainment of the objectives of the funds, having regard to the circumstances prevailing at any time.

The Company may lend securities in the investment portfolio of a fund with such frequency and on such terms and conditions as the Company in its absolute discretion may determine, subject to the requirements of any applicable insurance law, regulation or guideline in Canada.

The investment policies of the funds may permit the use of derivative instruments with no financial leverage. A derivative is a financial instrument that derives its value from an underlying security. The derivative instruments employed are subject to the risk factors described in this section. The following derivative instruments may be used in the funds to reduce transaction costs, increase the liquidity of the portfolio, or for the specific purposes discussed:

- Forward contracts traded over-the-counter may be used to change the exposure to foreign currencies of developed countries;
- Futures contracts traded on a public exchange may be used to replicate the return of various securities market indices or to increase or decrease the asset exposure to bonds or Canadian, American, European and Asian equities. Futures contracts may also be used for hedging purposes with the intention of offsetting or reducing the risk associated with stock market fluctuations;
- Options traded on a public equities exchange may also be used for hedging purposes with the intention of offsetting or reducing the risk associated with stock market fluctuations, or to increase or decrease the asset exposure and generate income. Market exposures are the same as described above for futures contracts;

- Swap contracts traded over-the-counter may be used for hedging purposes with the intention of offsetting or reducing the risk associated with stock market fluctuations and fluctuations in currency exchange rates of developed countries, or to increase or decrease currency or asset exposures. Market exposures are the same as described above for futures contracts; and
- Warrants traded on a public exchange.

The investment policies of the funds may permit them to invest in certain underlying funds. Investments in underlying funds will occur only where the investment policy of the underlying fund conforms to the policy of the fund. Specifically, the funds may invest in pooled funds, mutual funds, exchange-sponsored index funds, and certain publicly traded income trust funds.

Investments in pooled funds or mutual funds by a Desjardins Financial Security Guaranteed Investment Fund (DFS GIF) will not result in charges or fees to the fund or Owners other than previously described. No additional management fees or expenses are being charged for these investments.

Exchange-sponsored index funds may include such instruments as the i60s (Units of the iUnits S&P/TSX 60 Index Participation Fund) and SPDRs (Standard & Poor's 500 Depository Receipt) participation in which represents a proportionate interest in shares of companies listed on these exchange indices. Publicly traded income trust funds are unitized trusts, which generally distribute all income, generated by the underlying trust assets. Investment in both these types of funds involves minimal management expenses and/or fees which, to the extent they are material, are discussed further in the financial statements but are not included in the MER of the funds.

The fund will maintain a separate Unit value from the Underlying Fund reflecting the fees associated with the cost of providing the Helios2 – 75/75 guarantee and administration of the funds.

If the Underlying Fund is a mutual fund, it cannot change any fundamental objectives unless the change in the objective of the Underlying Fund is approved by the mutual fund unitholders. Should such an event occur, notice will be given to the Owner.

Responsible Investing

Responsible Investment Portfolios

The DFS GIF – Conservative – Desjardins Sustainable (formerly DFS GIF – Conservative – Desjardins SocieTerra), DFS GIF – Moderate – Desjardins Sustainable (formerly DFS GIF – Moderate – Desjardins SocieTerra), DFS GIF – Balanced – Desjardins Sustainable (formerly DFS GIF – Balanced – Desjardins SocieTerra), DFS GIF – Growth – Desjardins Sustainable (formerly DFS GIF – Growth – Desjardins SocieTerra), DFS GIF – Maximum Growth – Desjardins Sustainable (formerly DFS GIF – Maximum Growth – Desjardins SocieTerra) and DFS GIF – 100% Equity – Desjardins Sustainable (formerly DFS GIF – 100% Equity – Desjardins SocieTerra), as well as the DFS GIF – Global Balanced – Desjardins Sustainable (formerly DFS GIF – Global Balanced – Desjardins SocieTerra), follow a responsible approach to investing and use an investment strategy which seeks to generate both financial and sustainable value. Responsible Investing (“RI”) means integrating the analysis of environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) factors into investment selection and management over a long-term horizon in order to finance companies that contribute to sustainable development. The Underlying Funds are made up of securities that are selected and managed using the following four RI implementation strategies:

1. The exclusion of certain industries deemed harmful (such as weaponry, tobacco and vaping, fossil fuels and nuclear), subject to certain exceptions.
2. The exclusion of sovereign debt of countries that are not parties to certain universal human rights instruments, to the Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons or to the Paris Climate Agreement, and of sovereign debt of emerging countries with large fossil fuel reserves, subject to certain exceptions.
3. The evaluation of ESG practices of companies, in addition to the analysis of their financial performance.
4. The use of stewardship levers, such as: dialogue issuers to improve their practices, shareholder proposals to stimulate change, exercising voting rights at company annual general meetings, collaborating with other institutional investors and divestment.

The criteria mentioned above are not exhaustive and the responsible approach described above is subject to change at the sole discretion of the Underlying Fund manager. We do not guarantee that the strategies mentioned above are accurate and up to date. For accurate and up to date information on these strategies, we refer you to the prospectus of the Underlying Funds. More information on the responsible approach to investing of the Underlying Funds can also be found on the Desjardins Funds website at desjardinsfunds.com.

DFS GIF – Growth RS – NEI Select

The DFS GIF – Growth RS – NEI Select follows a responsible approach to investing. The Underlying Fund manager as responsible investing (“RI”) as an investment approach that incorporates environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) analysis of company performance into the investment decision-making process with the goal of generating long-term sustainable value for investors, and society.

An important aspect of this approach is the Underlying Fund manager’s process for selecting and monitoring portfolio sub-advisors. As a key component of the manager’s due diligence framework, the manager will assess the RI processes and activities of prospective and current portfolio sub-advisors in order to determine the most appropriate fit for its funds. At least annually the manager will review the portfolio sub-advisor’s approach to RI and its RI activities as part of its monitoring process.

Together with the portfolio manager and/or portfolio sub-advisor or the Underlying Fund, the Underlying Fund manager implements its approach to RI through the application of the following RI approaches: exclusionary screening, ESG evaluation and stewardship.

The Underlying Fund will exclude all companies with any direct revenue from the industries below, for the underlying funds which the portfolio manager has full discretion:

- Automatic and/or semi-automatic weapons manufacturing for civilian use
- Controversial weapons: cluster munitions, anti-personnel landmines, biological and chemical weapons, nuclear weapons
- Tobacco production and manufacturing

In addition, the Underlying Fund will exclude all companies with sustained revenues over 10% associated with the below industries, for the underlying funds which the portfolio manager has full discretion. The industries below may be amended from time to time while continuing to align with the fund’s responsible investing approach:

- The distribution of automatic or semi-automatic weapons intended for civilian use
- The manufacture of military weapon systems and/or tailor-made components for those systems
- The distribution of tobacco and/or tobacco-related products

The Underlying Fund integrates ESG factors by way of its selection of the underlying funds and portfolio construction process. Each of the underlying funds in the Underlying Fund must integrate ESG factors into their investment processes as a fundamental feature. These ESG factors of the underlying funds are identified and assessed along with traditional financial analysis to inform investment decisions. Once an investment has been made, the Underlying Fund manager monitors the holdings of the Underlying Fund on an ongoing basis to identify any new controversies or emergent risks. If material risks are uncovered through the monitoring process, the manager determines whether the risk can be mitigated through corporate engagement or if divestment is warranted.

The ESG methodology applicable to the Underlying Fund may be amended from time to time at the sole discretion of the Underlying Fund manager, portfolio manager or portfolio sub-advisor. We do not guarantee that the above information is accurate and up to date. For accurate and up to date information, we refer you to the prospectus of the Underlying Fund. More information on the responsible approach to investing of the Underlying Fund can also be found on the NEI Investments website at neinvestments.com.

Principal Risk Factors

The net asset value per Unit of each fund will fluctuate with changes in the market value of the investments held in the fund. These changes in market value may occur as a result of various factors, including general economic conditions, investments, market conditions and changes in interest rates, or the financial performance of the issuers of securities held in the fund.

Certain specific types of risk which may affect the funds from time to time are:

Risk of Volatile Markets and Market Disruption Risk

Market prices of investments held in a fund will go up or down, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably. Each fund's investments are subject to changes in general economic conditions, general market fluctuations and the risks inherent in investment in securities markets. Investment markets can be volatile and prices of investments can change substantially due to various factors including, but not limited to, economic growth or recession, changes in interest rates, changes in actual or perceived creditworthiness of issuers and general market liquidity. In addition, unexpected and unpredictable events such as war and occupation, terrorism, related geopolitical risks and pandemics may in the future lead to increased short-term market volatility and may have adverse long-term effects on world economies and markets generally. These events may adversely affect the performance of a fund. The effects of future terrorist acts (or threats thereof), military action, pandemics or similar unexpected disruptive events on the economies and securities markets of countries cannot be predicted. These events could also have an acute effect on individual issuers or related groups of issuers. Even if general economic conditions do not change, the value of an investment held in a fund could decline if the particular industries, sectors or companies in which a fund invests do not perform well or are adversely affected by events. Furthermore, legal, political, regulatory and tax changes also may cause fluctuations in markets and securities prices.

Special Equities Risk

This type of risk relates to stocks of companies that may not be traded on a public exchange or, by their nature, may have restricted marketability. An example would be a small private corporation whose shares are not sold through the typical channel of the stock exchange, but through a private transaction. Since there is no organized market for the stock, the original buyer may eventually have a limited amount of potential buyers to sell to. Likewise, small companies that are listed on a public stock exchange may have limited amounts of shares that are available to be traded on a given day, thus affecting the demand-supply relationship and consequently the price sold or paid. When companies are smaller and younger, management, earnings and the company's outlook may generally be less stable than a larger, more well-established company.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk generally affects bondholders and certain other fixed-income securities holders. As the interest rate paid on the fixed-income security is fixed throughout its life, its value may fluctuate throughout the term to maturity if market rates change. Generally, when interest rates increase, the value of the fund decreases, and when interest rates decrease, the value of the fund increases.

Credit Risk

Credit risk relates to the possibility that an issuer of a bond or other fixed-income security will not be able to meet its obligation to pay the required interest payments or repay the principal amount of the security at its maturity. In effect, buying a bond is like lending money. The financial health of the borrower reflects its capacity to pay the annual interest payments to the lender and, more importantly, to repay the borrowed money. Independent and external agencies exist that evaluate and issue ratings, using a standardized approach, of a government or corporation's financial status.

Foreign Currency Risk

Foreign currency risk relates to the possibility of the value of foreign securities fluctuating due to changes in the currency exchange rates of the investor's local currency relative to the currency of the foreign country in which the security is situated. In effect, when an investor purchases a foreign security, he must first convert his local currency into that of the foreign country at the going rate. If the going currency exchange rate changes throughout time, it will have an impact on the investor's security value once converted back to his local currency. For example, if the value of the Canadian dollar increases against the value of the foreign currency, the converted value of the foreign holdings in a fund may decrease.

Sovereign Risk

This type of risk relates to the potential of a country's status changing, by change of form of government or otherwise, which would have a negative effect on that country's economy or its business environment. Foreign securities may also be subject to foreign investment and exchange control laws, nationalization, expropriation, confiscatory taxation, currency controls, government regulation and intervention, diplomatic developments, high rates of inflation, or withholding tax. The risk on foreign investments may also be elevated because of reduced availability of information about foreign issuers since they are often not subject to the extensive accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards and practices applicable in North America.

Derivatives Risk

Derivatives risk relates to the possibility of loss of value induced by the underlying security from which the instrument derives its value. By its nature, the principal risk involved for a derivative contract would relate to the underlying security's nature and own risks. Thus, if the derivative contract specifies that the counterparty to a contract will pay him the price gains related to a specific stock, certain risks such as market risks, currency risks, and sovereign risks involved by directly purchasing that stock would also indirectly affect the derivative contract holder. Losses may also occur if the counterparty to a derivative transaction defaults on its obligations to pay the specified amounts of the derivative contract. In addition, derivative securities are also subject to the risk that the fund may not be able to readily sell or close out its positions in a derivative security.

Responsible Investing Risk

This type of risk relates to the use by a fund of responsible investing approach, which may limit the number and type of investment in which the fund can invest. The composition of the investment portfolio of this funds may differ from those of a given benchmark or a similar fund not using a responsible investing approach. As a result, the fund's return may differ.

DFS GIF – International Equity Growth – Desjardins

Objective of the fund

The objective of this fund is to achieve long-term capital growth by investing in equity and equity related securities of companies located or operating outside of North America, while when appropriate, also investing in equity and equity related securities of companies located or operating in emerging markets.

Strategy of the fund

Investment decisions are backed by extensive research and analysis with preference given to those companies that can sustain above average growth in earnings and cash flow and whose securities are traded at a reasonable price. The investment approach involves a bottom-up, stock driven approach to country and sector allocation and more specifically, those companies with sustainable competitive advantages and strong management teams operating in a favourable market background and display solid financial characteristics.

The principal risk factors of this fund are risk of volatile markets and market disruption risk, derivatives risk, foreign currency risk and sovereign risk.

Fund Facts – Desjardins Financial Security Guaranteed Investment Funds

This section of the Funds Facts document contains individual Funds Facts for each fund available through your Helios2 contract. You can choose to invest in one or more of these funds.

The individual Fund Facts give you an idea of what each fund invests in, how it has performed and what fees or charges may apply.

We show performance data for our funds, which include tables, charts and graphs. The tables show selected key financial information about each fund and are intended to help you understand each fund's financial performance since inception.

This information is derived from that particular fund's audited annual financial statements. The returns shown in these Fund Facts assume no withdrawals are made. It is important to remember that how the fund has performed in the past does not necessarily indicate how it will perform in the future.

Further information about the holdings of the underlying funds is available upon request.

The description of each fund in the individual Fund Facts is not complete without the following description of "What if I change my mind" and "For more information".

What if I change my mind?

You can cancel your contract within two business days of the earlier of the date you received the contract purchase confirmation or five business days after it is sent. You can also change your mind about additional deposits you make under the contract within the earlier of two business days of the date you received the deposit confirmation or five business days after it is sent to you. In this case, the right to cancel only applies to the new deposit.

You have to tell your insurer in writing, by email, fax or letter, that you want to cancel. The amount returned will be the lesser of your deposit or its value, if it has gone down. The amount returned only applies to the specific deposit and will include a refund of any sales charges or other fees you paid.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i, Helios2 – 100/100 i or Helios2 – 75/100 GLWB and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i, Helios2 – 100/100 i or Helios2 – 75/100 GLWB and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i, Helios2 – 100/100 i or Helios2 – 75/100 GLWB and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.15% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.15% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.15% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 0.50% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.15% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 0.50% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i or Helios2 – 75/100 GLWB and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.

Short Term Trading Fees

Short-term or frequent trading represents an expense for all Owners. Consequently, for short-term or frequent trading, we may charge a fee of 2% of the transaction amount, in addition to any applicable charges.

The Company also reserves the right to refuse to process this request.

Whether trading is short-term or frequent will be determined at our sole discretion according to our administrative rules in effect, including but this is not limited to switches or withdrawals of Units.

What if I change my mind?

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i or Helios2 – 100/100 i and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i or Helios2 – 100/100 i and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i, Helios2 – 100/100 i or Helios2 – 75/100 GLWB and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

Short Term Trading Fees

Short-term or frequent trading represents an expense for all Owners. Consequently, for short-term or frequent trading, we may charge a fee of 2% of the transaction amount, in addition to any applicable charges.

Trailing Commission

Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

Short Term Trading Fees

Short-term or frequent trading represents an expense for all Owners. Consequently, for short-term or frequent trading, we may charge a fee of 2% of the transaction amount, in addition to any applicable charges.

The Company also reserves the right to refuse to process this request.

Whether trading is short-term or frequent will be determined at our sole discretion according to our administrative rules in effect, including but this is not limited to switches or withdrawals of Units.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

Short Term Trading Fees

Short-term or frequent trading represents an expense for all Owners. Consequently, for short-term or frequent trading, we may charge a fee of 2% of the transaction amount, in addition to any applicable charges.

The Company also reserves the right to refuse to process this request.

Whether trading is short-term or frequent will be determined at our sole discretion according to our administrative rules in effect, including but this is not limited to switches or withdrawals of Units.

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i or Helios2 – 100/100 i and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.

Ongoing fund fees

The MER includes the management fees, operating expenses and taxes of the fund as well as the insurance cost for Helios2 – 75/75. You don't pay these expenses directly. The additional guarantee fees apply if you have chosen Helios2 – 75/100 i or Helios2 – 100/100 i and are paid out of the contract each month. They affect you because they reduce the return you get on your deposit. For more details about how the guarantees work, see the guarantees section in the Contract and Information Folder.

Trailing Commission

For all fee options except Fee Option F, Desjardins Financial Security pays your advisor and the distributor they do business with a trailing commission for as long as you own Units of the fund. It is for the services and advice they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fees applicable to Series 6 and 8. Its amount depends on the fee option you choose and on the market value of your Units associated with this fee option:

- No Load (Fee Option A) – 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- Low Load Sales Charge (Fee Option B) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year for the first 3 calendar years and 1.00% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option thereafter.
- Deferred Sales Charge (Fee Option C) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option each year.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option D) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 4 and 1.00% for years 5 and following.
- No Load – Advisor Chargeback (Fee Option E) – 0.50% of the market value of the Units attributed to this fee option annually for years 2 to 7 and 1.00% for years 8 and following.

For Fee Option F (Advisory Service Fee), you determine with your advisor the fees you will pay your advisor and the distributor they do business with for their services and advice.
