

SUMMARY OF THE COMPLAINT HANDLING POLICY

Desjardins Financial Security

In collaboration with Desjardins Financial Security ("DFS"), the Complaint Handling Team ("our team") has established an effective, fair, and free framework for handling complaints. This framework meets with the quality standards set by regulations. More specifically, our team's role is to analyze complaints with impartiality and a comprehensive assessment of all the facts.

What is a complaint?

A complaint is a reproach or a dissatisfaction that meets one of the following three elements:

- a reproach against DFS or its representatives or employees.
- a potential or actual prejudice you have suffered or could have suffered.
- a request for corrective measure.

As part of our complaint handling process, only claims for financial prejudice can be considered. We do not process claims for non-monetary prejudice or punitive damages. Such matters fall under the jurisdiction of regulatory bodies or the courts.

This process may not apply if legal proceedings have been initiated or if the alleged facts have already been the subject of a judgment or settlement.

Before filing a complaint with the Complaint Handling Team

STEP 1 - Contact an employee or manager of the team concerned

In case of dissatisfaction with the service provided or recommended products, we invite you to first contact DFS, which will analyze your dissatisfaction and will attempt to resolve it. If it remains unresolved after their intervention, or if you have not received a response within 20 days, our team will take over the matter without any action required on your part.

STEP 2 - Handling by the Complaint Handling Team

Complaint Handling Process

1. An acknowledgement of receipt will be sent to you within twenty (20) calendar days of the start of Step 1.
2. Following the acknowledgement of receipt, a Compliance Advisor from our team will contact you as soon as possible.
3. The Compliance Advisor assigned to your complaint will review your file.
4. After reviewing your file, a final written response containing our observations and decision will be sent to you within sixty (60) calendar days of the start of Step 1.
5. If a settlement offer is accepted, you will be required to sign a release form to confirm acceptance of the settlement.
6. If you remain dissatisfied with the final response from our team, you may pursue one of the various recourses available to you, as outlined below.

Note: If you are sending supporting documents for your complaint by email, please encrypt your message and documents, or communicate any sensitive information by phone, fax or mail. You may also contact us to transmit the documents electronically through a secure channel.

STEP 3 – Other recourses available to you

You may choose to use an independent dispute resolution service offered by a regulatory authority or a regulator organization with jurisdiction in your province of residence if you remain dissatisfied with the review of your file by our team or its result. Please note that filing your complaint does not interrupt the limitation period for any legal action you may take in the civil courts.

Across Canada:

- OmbudService for Life & Health Insurance

The OmbudService for Life & Health Insurance (OLHI) is an independent complaint resolution and information service for consumers of life and health insurance products and services (including life and disability insurance, annuities and segregated funds). We invite you to fill out the application form by visiting the website: <https://olhi.ca/> or call 1 888 295-8112.
